Austin Arthur held a campaign rally this Tuesday at the Lakeshore Center in Ocoee, Florida. The event hosted by Mayors of Winter Garden, Oakland, Ocoee, and Apopka including over a dozen sitting elected officials from the West Orange area.

The rally featured a historic 475 attendees. In a post on his social media Arthur stated, “A historic 475 residents attended our Campaign Rally this week. This is the largest campaign event for a commissioner candidate in Orange County history. Many backgrounds and viewpoints, but we all agree that we want a community-driven common sense Orange County, Florida!”

In attendance was a mixed group of residents, volunteers, and elected officials and former elected officials. Austin is running for a nonpartisan seat in Orange County and his attendees represented that as he explained from the podium during his speech, “in the room we have many Republicans and many Democrats because this race is not about the right wing or the left wing, its about the west wing, meaning West Orange County! We are focused on local issues, not the state and federal issues that divide us,”

Arthur’s list of business sponsors was also impressive:

Fun Spot America	West Orange Creamery and Soda Fountain
Goliath Ventures	Minuteman Press Sand Lake
Federal Finance	Cannonfire Photography
Ellie Lou's Brews & BBQ	Faith & Co.
